

Project Proposal Rubric

Description	Total Possible points
Written submission provides background and motivation on the proposed topic, why it is important and worth working on, how it compares to and builds on prior work	25
Written submission provides concrete project plan and description of proposed work, such as the data, models, and metrics or the scope or list of papers to be surveyed	25
Written submission provides some summary of initial results, such as data statistics or off-the-shelf model performance	20
Grammar, formatting, and references	10
In-class presentation motivates the proposed topic, outlines the planned work, and is presented in a clear and understandable way	20
Total	100